They are building atomic bombs; we are building love bombs

Maitreya Rael, Raelian Gathering, Aug 03, 79 aH (2025), Okinawa, Japan

The love radiating from this room is covering the entire Earth. It's so simple. We are providing what the Earth needs. We were born for this. Our speeches about DNA, the Embassy, all these things, they are beautiful, but compared to love, they are nothing. We are, above all, messengers of love. We were born to heal humanity. And humanity has never been as sick as it is now. It's such a unique time. We are very close to the death of humanity.

Yesterday, Russia announced that they now have mass production of atomic bombs. You know, we always thought they made one bomb, just one. No! Now they have a full-scale production line, like a manufacturing chain for mineral water bottles. But instead, they're making atomic bombs. And yesterday, the President of the United States said, "Send them on; we are ready!" It's like a dream... no, a nightmare. Two of the world's greatest superpowers: one is mass-producing atomic bombs, and the other says, "Send them, we are ready!"

We have to laugh, because if we don't, we will cry. They are completely insane! And they know that the power of just one atomic bomb can destroy an entire country. One single bomb! Forget Hiroshima. Hiroshima was like firecrackers on a national holiday compared to what they have now. You have to understand: one of these new bombs on Japan would completely wipe it out. Not one city left. Nothing. Erased. Only the ocean would remain; with very happy fish, because they'd suddenly have food: human beings.

One bomb! And they have thousands.

“I’m creating a contagious disease on Earth, a contagion of love.

When we meditate on love, energy radiates from us. These radiations have the power to enter people’s brains. Nothing is more powerful than atomic bombs, except for one thing: love.

The power of love. There is no atomic bomb in the entire universe as powerful as love. So, feel this power!.”

And with their so-called rational minds, they say, “We are ready to use them.” This is the danger of thinking. If we use supraconsciousness, we wouldn’t even build one bomb. But with thinking, we can build thousands; and threaten to use them. And the other side replies, “We’re ready.” Is this a nightmare? Can someone wake me up? I can’t believe it, but it’s real.

Once upon a time, there was only a short distance between the killer and the person being killed. Long ago, if you had a piece of wood and wanted to kill someone, you had to face them. You had to touch them. Same with a knife, you had to get close. Even with archery, it was similar. Guns created more distance. But now, with an atomic bomb, with a hypersonic missile, if one is launched from Russia, in ten minutes there is no more Japan. Ten minutes! America doesn’t have those yet, but they’re working on them. Everyone wants them. China probably has them. India has them. Pakistan has them.

We are surrounded by countries with atomic bombs, crazy bombs, and they say, “We will use them.” And the others say, “Go ahead, we’ll retaliate.” We need to wake up, this is a real nightmare. It’s like having the sword of Damocles hanging over our heads. You know the story, maybe by another name. Damocles had a sword suspended above him. If he moved, it would fall and kill him. That’s where we are now. There is an atomic bomb ready to be launched, and insane people ready to launch it. And we are all the targets.

So now, more than ever, it’s time to sing LOVE. – [Yes!] “Loooooooooove.” – [Crowd chants L-O-V-E like a mantra]

For the first time in our history, since life was created by the Elohim, humanity can destroy itself. Not the Earth; the Earth doesn’t care. The Earth will keep turning, the sun will keep shining, the galaxy will continue to move. We just won’t be here anymore. Because we are not important. We are only important if there is love. And now, thousands of years after the creation of life by our fathers, we suddenly have the power to destroy it.

Human beings have been training for centuries with sticks, with swords, with guns, with airplanes. That was just practice. The real moment is now. Finally – thank you, humanity – you have atomic bombs! No more slow, painful suffering from swords. Boom! It’s over. No more suffering. Isn’t that beautiful? But... is that really how we want humanity to end?

What’s the only way to avoid it? Love. Love is the only way.

Why can someone stab another person? Because there is no love. Why can someone shoot someone else? Because there is no love. Why can someone drop a bomb? Because there is no love, because they don’t follow the teaching of the Elohim.

The most beautiful commandment: “Thou shalt not kill.”

Everything else is poetry. And I love poetry, but it’s just blah blah. “Thou shalt not kill.” So simple. And now, here we are, facing the atomic bomb. Before, there were knives. You might survive, maybe with an injury or permanent damage. But with atomic bombs, you don’t survive. You die. Period.

It’s life, or it’s death. If an atomic bomb drops, no one will suffer because these bombs are so powerful that nothing remains. Not one blade of grass. Not one insect. Not one tree. No life. Life plus atomic bomb equals no life. It’s the end of the creation of the Elohim. We’ve been practicing for centuries, and now it’s here. And now comes the Messiah. Just in time.

I'm the only one who can stop it.

How? With love. Not alone. I'm creating a contagious disease on Earth, a contagion of love. When we meditate on love, energy radiates from us. These radiations have the power to enter people's brains. Nothing is more powerful than atomic bombs, except for one thing: love. The power of love. There is no atomic bomb in the entire universe as powerful as love. So, feel this power!

That's why you joined me. That's why, when you read the Message, you said, "Yes!" – [Yes!] – Can you say it again? – [Yes!] – "Yes! I'm ready to fight for love with Maitreya!"

That's what you said. And some people laughed at you. "A group of UFO believers; you can't do anything." But we are stronger than atomic bombs. Feel it. Feel it, it's you. You and me, together. They are building atomic bombs; we are building love bombs. Let's make love dominate this planet. Let's make love rule this planet. From the creation of life to its possible destruction, only the rain of love from the Elohim can save us.

Receive it. You know, they are constantly thinking about us. Sometimes, they cry, because of our stupid creations. Imagine being in the mind of the Elohim, the ones who created every beautiful form of life on Earth: flowers, butterflies, human beings. And now, those same human beings are creating the tools to destroy it all.

Satan is laughing, "I told you so, he says, human beings are a mistake."

And I agree, more and more. When you realize that just ten atomic bombs could destroy all life on Earth, you start to wonder, with the Elohim, "Where did we go wrong? There must be a mistake somewhere." And again, the only way to avoid it is love. Through love, we protect the creation of the Elohim.

When you leave this room, you'll see trees, flowers, butterflies. What are you seeing? The creation of the Elohim.

In the smiles of your brothers and sisters, what do you see? The creation of the Elohim.

When you look in the mirror, what do you see? The creation of the Elohim.

And love is the only thing that can save it all. Thank you, Elohim. Millions of people on Earth think about the Hiroshima bomb on August 6. That's all. They just say, "Oh yes..." But we, the Raelians, we say, "Happy New Year!"

We celebrate the birth of what could end all wars. Because, actually, thanks to the atomic bomb, we can stop all wars. Humanity is cornered. If they use it, they disappear. That's never happened before. And it began on August 6, 1945. So, this week, let's celebrate together: Happy New Year. Maybe the happiest new year ever, if humanity chooses to stop killing. Or, if humanity chooses to destroy everything.

But I am with you. Thank you, Elohim!

The Chosen ones

Maitreya Rael, Raelian Gathering, July 20, 79 aH (2025), Okinawa, Japan

Raelians, who are you? This is a very important question: who are you?

The Israeli people – the Jewish people – live in the illusion that they are the “chosen people”, but the real chosen people... are the Raelians. Do you think the Elohim are listening to Israel and the Jewish people now? No. They are watching you. You are the ones. The Jewish people believe they were meant to welcome the Messiah. But who is welcoming the Messiah now?

You are!

I'm not welcomed in Israel. I'm not welcomed in Korea. But it is in Israel that I am meant to be welcomed. I am here on Earth to be welcomed in Israel, to be welcomed by the Jewish people. What does it mean to be Jewish? To welcome the Messiah. That's the only reason for the Jewish identity; to welcome the Messiah. You've probably seen pictures of rabbis standing in front of a wall, praying. What are they praying for? “Please, send us the Messiah!” They pray and they look up to the sky, “Please, send us the Messiah!”

I am here.

We asked seven times for authorization to build the Embassy in Israel; and they refused. Seven times. But they still claim to be waiting for the Messiah. Can anything be more ironic? I am here, just look, just make the Embassy. They keep praying, “Please, send us the Messiah!” That's the ultimate goal of the Jewish faith. They wake up every day hoping, “Maybe today, the Messiah will come.” And when he does, they're supposed to sell everything, give up their lives, and go serve him.

One day, I was speaking with a very religious Jewish man. And you know, “very religious” means he prays every day for the coming of the Messiah; because that's what it means to be Jewish. It's not about counting money; it's about welcoming the Messiah. That's the ultimate goal of the Jewish faith. So, I asked him, “You pray every day for the Messiah. Are you ready to give up everything, your house, your money, your comfort? Are you ready?” He said, “Yes. I'm ready.” And I told him, “I am here.” He looked at me and said, “You are not the Messiah.” I asked, “What makes you so sure?” He repeated, “You are not.” So, I said, “What if the Elohim appear and say, ‘It's him?’ Will you sell everything and come help me?” I looked into his eyes and asked directly, “Look at me. I am here.” He said, “Yeah... but you are not the Messiah.” How convenient, right? So, I asked, “Do you truly want the Messiah to come now?” He answered, “Well... yes... but I'd prefer if he comes after I die... so I can keep my money.”

That's the truth. That's something you can't make up. They've waited for two thousand, even three thousand years, but deep inside, they don't want him to come while they're alive. They want to keep living their little selfish lives. Like the Bible says, “Their god is Mammon.” They don't love the Elohim; they love Mammon, the god of money. It's even written in their own texts, in the Bible! That's the meaning of the golden calf. The Jewish tribe, in the time of their prophet, stopped respecting the Elohim, and started worshipping gold.

Can you imagine?

You're chosen to carry the teachings of the Elohim, and you pray to a golden calf? You can't imagine how much the Elohim laughed. They're always laughing. When Satan challenged Yahweh, saying, “You think your prophet Abraham loves you, that if you tell him to kill his son he won't do it?" And Yahweh said, "No, no. Abraham is too intelligent, he wouldn't do that. He understands, "Thou shalt not kill." So, they tested him. They told Abraham, "Kill your son." And like a soldier, Abraham replied, "Yes sir!" He took a knife and was ready to kill his own son. The Elohim were in shock. They laughed like crazy. They couldn't believe humans were still like this. They had hoped humans were better, that they had learned and would refuse to kill. But no. "We asked them not to kill... but they are ready to kill." For us, it's sad.

“I am here on Earth to be welcomed in Israel, to be welcomed by the Jewish people. What does it mean to be Jewish? To welcome the Messiah. That’s the only reason for the Jewish identity; to welcome the Messiah.”

Handwritten signature of Rael

For the Elohim, it was hilarious.

The most important teaching is this, “Thou shalt not kill.” Imagine this. Yahweh comes to you and says, “Kill Maitreya.” What would you do? A very interesting question. That’s a test of the Elohim, a test to see if you use the grey thing inside your head or if you follow everything. The essence of the Elohim’s teaching is simple: Be YOU; not someone who follows every voice from the sky, or from the toilet. Be YOU! Use your supraconsciousness!

Even me, the Last Prophet, the Messiah, if Yahweh himself told me to kill someone, I would say, “No!” I am the messenger of the Elohim but I have the right to say “no” and I will do it. I’m not a puppet. I have my consciousness and more importantly, I have my supraconsciousness. So, even if Yahweh himself orders me to do something that goes against my consciousness, I will refuse!

Be you! That’s the message of the Elohim to humanity, “Be you! The real you, deep inside.” You will never kill anybody. But with Abraham’s story, they were laughing like crazy, “They are not finished! We made a mistake in their brain, they are not finished.” When people are stupid, in France, we say, “Some parts of their brain were not finished.” When people are stupid, we say that, “Some parts are missing.” And it’s true! To kill somebody, you need to have something missing! And science now proves it. Scientists study the brains of criminals, and these brains are missing some parts.

And how can we have a complete brain? By being ourselves! If you follow the orders of militaries, or anybody, you are not you. Being you is the only way to give you the power to say, “No! I love the Elohim, I respect the Elohim, but my supraconsciousness is more important.” That’s powerful. You are not a puppet; you are you! And by being you, you become equal to the Elohim. In other words, don’t follow their orders; be at the same level, which brings peace and love. This peace and love come from yourself.

Some people do good things because they want to go to heaven. That’s terrible. “I’ll be good so I don’t go to hell.” If you do good out of fear, you’re not truly human. Being human is doing good because it’s good, not because you’re afraid of hell. If you are human and use your supraconsciousness, you don’t need hell or heaven. You see someone drowning, you don’t think, “If I don’t save that person, I’ll go to hell.” No, you just jump and save the person. If you think about the Elohim before doing good, you’re not a true Raelian. Be good for no reason; just because you are you. If you see someone drowning, naturally, you’ll act with love. That’s what it means to be Raelian. You are waiting for the Messiah, welcoming the Messiah. You are spreading love. You are the chosen people.

Look Jewish people in the eyes and know you are more Jewish than they are. The only true Jews on Earth... are the Raelians. And I am so proud to have a team like you. Thank you, Elohim. Shalom!

Thank you for your love. I feel it. I can touch it. It’s so strong; I could cut it with a knife like a beautiful big cake. Feel that love. Keep it inside you. When you spread the Message, remember: you are the chosen people. No one else but you! Feel the power of being the chosen people. And if you don’t feel “wow” from that, what else can? You are the chosen people; chosen by the Elohim... because you chose them. When you became Raelian, you chose. You could have said no. I could have said no. When I was at the puy de Lassolas, I could’ve said, “Not me. I want to go back to racing cars.” But I chose. And that’s why we are together.

That freedom is the greatest gift from the Elohim. You are Raelians because every morning, when you wake up, you choose it. And today, you’re here because you chose to be. Be proud of yourself. And I’m proud too.

I could stop at any time. Fifty years of my life; I could say, “Enough, I gave fifty years of my life, I’m going to the beach.” But no. I want to be with you.

I love you. And I hope you feel it.

Do you feel it? – [Yes!]

Raelian News

Réjean Proulx with his companion Helene in 77 aH and in 60 aH

The great ReJean passed away on the morning of August 6th, surrounded by his loved ones.

ReJean was the 1st Continental Guide for the Americas and helped the Movement for a full 5 decades in so many ways! He was for all of us an example of love and kindness. Thomas K

A pioneer and pillar of the North American Movement has passed away... like a smile dissolving into the ocean of life. We welcomed him several times in Europe, and he became a friend. Somewhere, the color of our memories will remain imbued with his smile, his delicacy, and his determination. His perseverance in defending our cause and his talent as an organizer made him the reference point for our Movement for many years. He dedicated his life to spreading the message of the last of the Prophets throughout humanity. ReJean, you are an example and a source of inspiration and strength for all of us. Thank you for being you. Bye ... Pierre Gary

Kama: Nigeria

In Nigeria, a country identified as a priority by Maitreya, there is currently only one active Raelian, Ikwan, who is also the National Guide.

Internet diffusions with videos and paid advertisements were made, and then Ikwan created WhatsApp discussion groups with the new contacts. With the help of Yoropo Bolou from Côte d'Ivoire, weekly Zoom meetings were organized to communicate with them. There was an excellent follow-up, which bore fruit, as on August 6, Gyom managed to perform nine transmissions, including two women, and inducted Ikwan as a confirmed Guide-Priest.

A wonderful team is getting started in this very deistic and mystical country. The enthusiasm of the newly baptized is such that Gyom has complete faith in the strong development of the Movement in this country.

Switzerland: poster campaigns in train stations

The Swiss Raelian Movement has carried out several poster campaigns featuring the magnificent backlit posters designed by Daniel Tordeur, in November 78 aH (2023), November 79 aH (2024), and more recently, in August 79 aH (2025). For two weeks, they were visible in the train stations of several cities across the country.

Each campaign sparked media reactions, often accompanied by insidious questions such as, "Is this allowed?" or "Shouldn't this be banned?" However, the authorities confirmed our rights each time: the dogs bark, but the caravan moves on.

This year, however, the Swiss Federal Railways, which owns the sites, asked us for an explanation regarding negative press articles published twenty years ago, as well as old legal cases concerning our freedom of expression, which we had lost at the time. We now felt resistance on their part to granting us the lease of the sites. Twice we had to respond to their questioning in an almost judicial tone. Some of us feared these efforts would be in vain and suggested that the investment would have been better used elsewhere.

In the end, thanks to our perseverance, the Swiss Federal Railways approved the third campaign in Geneva and Lausanne. It is already generating new media coverage and, as with the previous campaigns, hundreds of people have scanned the QR code leading directly to the online reading of the Messages.
