ABOUT THE NEWS

Brian Haw awarded Honorary Guide Title

'This man is a model for the whole of Humanity'

Brian Haw has spent the past four-and-a-half years encamped outside London Parliament to highlight the plight of Iraqi children. Arrested once more yesterday as a law has passed that forbids spontaneous free speech within a one-kilometer radius of the House of Commons, Brian Haw told the policemen: "I'm not breaching the peace. I'm fighting for it." He was released a few hours later as his crime - the fact that his sleeping bag was within shouting distance of the Prime Minister's bedroom - started before the law came into force and the High Court judges ruled that he was exempt from the ruling.

Despite the High Court decision made in July, police are still "harassing" him, but he is back to Parliament Square today, keeping a vigil as he has been doing it, night and day, since June 2001.

The Prophet RAEL said today that he is a model for the whole of Humanity. "Instead of living a selfish life, not caring for others, and for the crimes perpetrated by governments of the so-called "free world", he is standing up and protesting even if he is harassed by the dogs of power. So I decided to award him the title of honorary Guide of Humanity."

Our support was expressed this week to :

- the actor Leonardo DiCaprio who has announced he is to make a documentary about environmental issues
- the Korean Professor Hwang, pioneer in stem cell research, who is attacked because he didn't declare that some of his researchers gave eggs for the experiment... why would it be less ethically correct to give eggs than anything else? 6 Korean Raelian women are now offering him their eggs.... more in the next issue.
- Elton John and George Michael who have announced that they will soon marry their respective longtime partners as the British law has just accepted same sex marriages.

Ditalamane Hebie, Bishop Guide of Burkina Faso was in Mozambique this week, he tells us :

Last night, I gave a conference in downtown Maputo (Mozambique) after a few invitations given orally and that spread by words of mouth... I had no time and no money to print pamphlets and organize a conference as we usually do. Also it takes a long time to get the proper authorization at the University and they are in the middle of exam sessions. So I just had pamphlets with a summary of the Messages in Portuguese. I was hoping to have 5 participants, I had 20, including 6 women.... pleasure, only pleasure here since last night J
